

TRZNICA BANJA LUKA

SUBJECT: a public notification

The Administrative board of the company "Trznica" from Banjaluka, wants to inform the public, that on the meeting held 16th October, 2009 Mr.Radosav Grbic was dismissed from the function of director, on his own demand.

On the same meeting, a decision was brought, that Mr.Dragan Stupar, a graduated lawyer from banjaluka, is named the new director.

The members of the Administrative board want to express sadness about the decision of Mr.Radosav Grbic, to be dismissed from the director function, but also want to show pleasure that Mr.Grbic will stay employed at the company, as a director consultant, and help the new director and the company's board with his previous experience and suggestions, to keep the tradition of quality business, and save the image it has acquired while Mr.Radosav Grbic was director of the company.

The role of Mr.Grbic in building the company's reputation is indisputable.The company has become one of the most successful collectives in Banjaluka, and Republic Srpska.

The Administrative board and Mr.Srdjan Prastalo, and the new director Mr.Dragan Stupar, with Mr.Radosav Grbic will do everything in the next period of time, to save the reputation of the company, and improve it even more.

With respect,

The board of the company
